The Bankers of Washington, individually, have not leaned to Mr. Gleenbether one dollar, but the Banks have liberally. This course of the Sergeant-at-Arms has had the effect of de-puising some of the brokers of the revenues of many a good fai share, and causes much com-plaint among them. There is now due to mem-bers on account of per diem and milleage about two hundred and ninety thousand dollars, of which it is said Mr. G. has paid to them about 880.00. It may not perhaps be generally known that luring the present unorganized condition of the

It may not persage to generally according to the House of Representatives, no money can be drawn from the U. S. Treasury, for the payment of members of that branch of Congress. In this condition of affairs, A. J. Glossbeiner, Eaq., sergeant-at-arms of the last House, and who is still acting in that capacity, having been applied to by members of Congress for money to meet their necessities, procured funits from some of the Fennsylvania banks on his own responsibility, and paid'it out to members, taking their receipts therefor. St. Lonis Weather.

We have had about 8 inches of snow since Saturday eve. The weather is clear this morning with indications of a thaw. As far as we can learn, the railroads are unobstructed and trains running assumal. Considerable snow has fallen up the Missouri River, and as the weather is quite, mild, probably the thaw will raise the river sufficient to break up the ice and then ensure the resumption of navigation.
